Last Will of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt late of New York. deceased.

Know all men by these Presents, That I, Cornelius J. Vanderbilt of the City, County and State of New York, being of lawful age, and sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish, pronounce and declare this and this only to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other and former wills by me made, and establishing this and this only as and for my last will and Testament; that is to say;—

First. I give and bequeath to my niece Mrs. Annie Allen Wallace wife of John Wallace and wife of my sister Mrs. Daniel B. Allen the sum of Fifty thousand Dollars ($50.000.)

Second. I give and bequeath to my niece Mrs. Lillian La Bau Blois the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars. ($30.000.) the said last mentioned legatee being a daughter of my sister Mrs. Mary Alicia La Bau Berger.

Third. I give and bequeath to each of my sisters Emily A. Thorn, Ethelinda P. Allen, Sophia J. Torrance, Eliza Osgood, and Mrs. Mary Alicia La Bau Berger the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1.000) and it is my request that each of my said sisters shall purchase with said sum so bequeathed to them some article in remembrance of me.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to Jerome B. Morse of Tarrytown in the State of New York (the husband of my niece Sophia, daughter of my deceased sister, Mrs. Phebe Jane Cross) the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.)

Fifth. I give and bequeath to Mrs. Theodore DeWolf Colt, now of Bristol in the State of Rhode Island (the friend and companion of my deceased wife) the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000.)

Sixth. I give and bequeath to my much esteemed and trustworthy friend Samuel P. Colt of said Bristol, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.)

Seventh. I give and bequeath to George W. Terry of said New York, my faithful friend and companion for years, a legacy of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars ($120.000) and I hereby will and direct that said legacy of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars shall be paid to the said George W. Terry in full before any other legacies, bequests or devises whatever under my will are paid in full or in part.— the said legacy of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars in no event and on no account to suffer or be subjected to any abatement or diminution whatever.

Eighth. I give and bequeath to my friend Major Edward D. Luxton of said New York City, (now in my employ as secretary and agent) the sum of

Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.)

Ninth. I also hereby give and bequeath to the aforenamed Samuel P. Colt of said Bristol and said Edward D. Easton of said New York, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.) in trust and to be held by them and their successors in said trust in the manner and for the following purposes viz: said Trustees shall receive said sum and invest the same in such manner as they shall deem most advantageous and shall collect the income thereof — with full power at any time or times to change said investments or any part thereof and for that purpose to collect or call in any or all of said sum or sums so invested or make sale and conveyance of the property invested in, and reinvest the proceeds thereof. And said Trustees shall pay over the said income of said trust fund and property semi annually to the aforenamed George N. Terry, during his lifetime, and upon the decease of the said George N. Terry said Trustees shall pay over and transfer all the said trust-fund and property (and all income and accumulations thereof, if any, then remaining in the hands of said Trustees) unto such person or persons and in such manner as the said George N. Terry shall by his last will and Testament direct or designate.

And in case the said George N. Terry shall decease without making and leaving such direction or designation by will I then direct such Trustees to continue to hold and manage the said trust fund and property as aforesaid with the full powers aforesaid during the lifetime of Nelson Terry the father of said George N. Terry, now residing at Moriches Long Island in said state of New York, and to pay over the income thereof, semi-annually to said Nelson Terry during his life and upon the decease of said Nelson Terry said trust fund and property (and any and all income and accumulations thereof if any, remaining in the hands of said Trustees is hereby given and bequeathed to Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory and her two daughters Mrs. Lucy Phillips and Mrs. Josephine Shepard or to such of them as shall then be living, in equal shares or proportions; to them their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever; and said Trustees shall transfer and pay over the same to them accordingly - the said Elizabeth Gregory being the sister and the said Lucy Phillips and Josephine Shepard being the nieces of said George N. Terry.

Tenth. As to the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate and property, real, personal and mixed, of every nature kind or description and wheresoever situated of which I shall die seized and possessed or be entitled to at the time of my decease and of all the estate and property and of the proceeds thereof which shall under the provisions of this my will and the Trust Deed hereinafter mentioned come into the hands of my Executors or any Administrator, (if any) who may be appointed upon my Estate, I give, devise and bequeath all such rest residue and remainder (after payment of the several bequests by me made) unto said George N. Terry of said New York, his heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns forever.

Lastly, I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint the said Samuel P. Colt, George N. Terry and Edward D. Luxton, Executors of this my last Will and Testament (without compensation for their services as such Executors under this my will, and without compensation to said S. P. Colt and Edward D. Luxton as Trustees as hereinbefore provided) and I hereby direct and request that they shall not be required to give bonds or any security for the performance of their duties as such Executors, and I also exempt the said Samuel P. Colt and Edward D. Luxton from giving any bonds or security for the performance of their duties as Trustees as aforesaid.

And Whereas in a Deed of Trust from William K. Vanderbilt to Edwin D. Worcester dated the twelfth day of May A.D. 1879, (Eighteen Hundred and seventy nine) there is contained a certain clause in the following words to wit: "And I also "empower the said Cornelius J. Vanderbilt to dispose by will "of the principal deed unpaid interest or dividends of the trust "fund thereby created, and direct that on his death the same "be paid over by said Trustee or his successor, as may be directed "by such will."

Now therefore I dispose of the same to and direct that the same shall go to my said Executors or such of them as shall accept said Executorship.

And I hereby will and direct that said Worcester Trustee as aforesaid or his successor as Trustee under said Deed of Trust from said William K. Vanderbilt shall pay over and transfer to my aforesaid Executors or to such of them as shall accept and take upon themselves such Executorship all the property, principal, interest, dividends, income, increase and accumulations of the trust fund referred to in said deed of Trust, which may be remaining in the hands of the said Worcester Trustee as aforesaid or of his successor at the time of my decease,

(and in case by means of the decease of my said Executors hereinafter appointed or by their non acceptance of said Executorship it should happen that none of them should take upon themselves the said Executorship and receive said Trust fund and property as aforesaid and an Administrator or Administrators should be appointed upon my estate, then and in that event I will and direct that said Trust fund and said accumulations shall be by said Worcester Trustee as aforesaid or by his successor paid over and delivered to such administrator or administrators) the same to constitute part of my estate and (so far as the same shall not then consist of money) to be sold by my said Executors or administrators and turned into money and then to be distributed, applied, and apportioned according to and in the payment and carrying out of the Bequests, and provisions of this my will in the manner herein provided.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my Last Will and Testament (written upon this and the preceding nine pages of paper) at the City of New York, this twenty fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord, Eighteen Hundred and Eighty One (1881.)
